Two Main Characters

Name:

_____

One word to describe:

_____

h

Image

Name:

_____

One word to describe:

_____

Image

The Main Character

Name:

_____

Five words that best describe the character:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Image

MY NAME:

_____

How do I rate this book?

Color in the stars!

☆☆☆☆
Here are some other books I recommend.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Title

_____

_____

Author

_____

_____

Image of story

My Favorite Scene

[blank box]

Genre:

This book is (circle one):

Realistic Fiction

Science Fiction

A Mystery

Other _____

Problem and Solution

The Problem

[blank box]

⬇

How the problem was solved

[blank box]
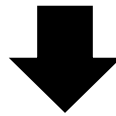

PLOT

List the five plot events that you think were most important in the story.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Setting

Time:

_____

Place:

_____

Duration:

_____

(how long did it last)

[blank box]

Picture of your favorite setting in the story.

3rd to 6th Grade Novel Projects

~Book Jacket *3-prong folder *Title, author, and colorful illustration on front cover. *5-8 sentence summary for each chapter fastened in prongs. *Your opinion of the book on back cover.		~ Poem *Write a six-stanza poem (four lines per stanza) about the novel with each stanza representing the plot of the story as follows: -Stanza 1: Setting -Stanza 2: Problem/Conflict of the novel. -Stanza 3: Rising Action (Main events of the story that lead to the climax.) -Stanza 4: Climax (The height/most intense part of the story.) -Stanza 5: Falling Action (The main events that take place after the climax leading to the resolution of the story.) -Stanza 6: Resolution (How the problem was solved?)
~ Research *Each novel takes place in a particular area or may contain encounters with a particular animal. Research the setting or animal in the novel and write a one-page report. Research facts and include them with your report. Add an illustration.	~ Mobile *Utilize a clothes hanger and string/yarn. *Components: -Book Title, Author, Illustrator -Main Characters -Setting -Problem/Conflict -Rising Action -Climax -Falling Action -Resolution -Making Connections -Favorite Part	~ Diorama Project *Utilize a shoebox *Create a scene from the novel. *Write a summary of the chapter the scene depicts. *Include text evidence that supports the scene with chapter and page numbers.
~Poster Board *Components: -Book Title, Author, Illustrator -Main Characters -Three Character Traits with Text Evidence and Page Numbers -Setting	~Write a Sequel *If the novel had a Part 2, write a two-page sequel. *Include the setting, main characters, the problem the characters would face in the sequel, the main events, and resolution. *Include an illustration.	~Chapter Wheel *Select your six favorite chapters of the novel. *Create the wheel by drawing a large circle, cut it out, and write the title and author of the novel in the center. *Divide your wheel into six slices. *Task: two slices will contain a symbol that represents the chapter and explain how it represents the selected

-Problem/Conflict
-Rising Action
-Climax
-Falling Action
-Resolution
-Illustration
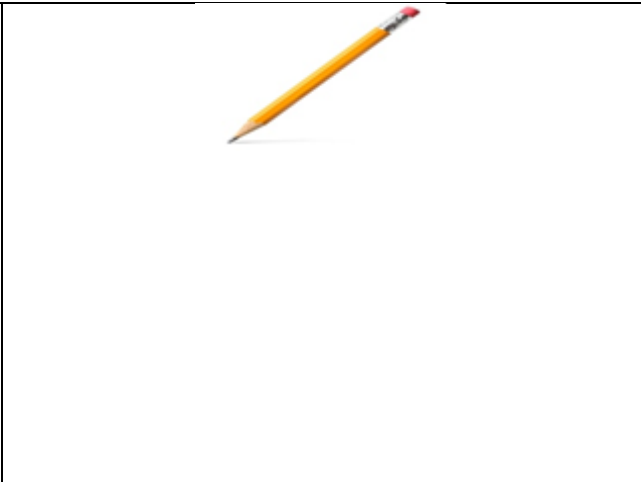

chapter, two slices will contain a summary of two different chapters (minimum of 5 sentences each), and two slices will contain a favorite quote from two chapters and explain why it is your favorite.

Summer Reading Project Rubric

Name: _____

Book Title: _____

Project Rubric:

The project was complete, and all the necessary components are included	/40 points
Spelling, Punctuation, Grammar	/20 points
Creativity and Originality	/20 points
Projects are organized and attractive	/20 points

Total Possible..._____/100 points